Interested in Politics?

The Political Studies Association is a charity promoting the study of and engagement with politics, specifically with young people and universities.

We are hosting a FREE 'Applying to Study Politics?' workshop for students in years 11-13. These workshops are in collaboration with universities across the UK to encourage students to study politics and give them a better idea of the course at the undergraduate level.

This year's North West event will be taking place at Edge Hill University Monday 10 June from 11am-3pm.

The day will feature a talk on the admissions process, a sample politics lecture and plenty of time for questions!

For more information and to register please visit: <https://www.psa.ac.uk/events/applying-study-politics-workshop-north-west>

As well as this, the PSA is proud to be partnering with the Financial Times on our first Student Blog Competition. This competition is open to students aged 16-19 and is on the theme 'Is British Politics Broken?'. For more information click here.

If you have any questions on the above, please feel free to contact me.

Last chance- UCL applications

For students in Years 5-11 applications are open for our Bring Your Family to University Visit Days, Young Researchers, and UCL Young Curators.

BATTLE

We are pleased to invite you and your students to take part in the Battle performance project 3rd -7th June, offered by year 2 BA Dance & Performing Arts students from the University of Chester. These dancers, mentored by artistic director Malaika Sarco-Thomas, are bringing a new hip hop and contemporary dance performance to area schools, as well as an optional creative movement workshop and Q&A for your students. This package is offered at no cost. More details and how to book can be found on the flyer here:

If you would like to arrange any kind of supporting event for your students, we offer a diverse range of workshops and talks on subjects including:

1. Introduction to Higher Education
2. Student Experience
3. Student Finance
4. UCAS and Personal Statements
5. Study Skills
6. Options
7. Subject Specific Content

The hip hop battle is a platform for expression, where breakers prove themselves against other breakers. In the 8 weeks, performers explore the power of movement to communicate. BATTLE is a high energy dance performance about how we grow stronger when we dare to meet one another.

Developed by second year BA Dance and Performing Arts students from the University of Chester under the artistic direction of Malaika Sarco-Thomas, BATTLE brings street dance and contemporary styles together with an urban soundtrack to tell original stories of young

During the week of 3-7 June 2019 we can offer the following to Chester area schools:

- Performance, 15 minutes (groups 50-60 minute get in to the site or arrive 15 mins with dance floor)
- Q&A with the performers, 15 minutes
- Creative workshop on the themes of the show, 45-60 minutes

This project is part of a professional practice experience for our dance artists training and is offered at no cost. We look forward to sharing
